ORDER OF ST. ANNE

- Originally founded in Kiel by Duke Karl Friedrich of Schleswig-Holstein-Gottorp in commemoration of his wife Anna Petrovna, daughter of Peter the Great. However, about 150 years later, the Order was re-established by Paul I of Russia in 1797, and considered to be named after St. Anne, Mother of famous Virgin Mary.
- The insignia of the Order is known to be given to the Russian citizens since 1742, when son of Karl Friedrich, Karl Peter Ulrich, who later became a short-lived Czar of Russia Peter III, moved to Russia.
- The Order originally had 1 Class, then re-founded by Paul I, 3 Classes, and finally, in 1815, the Fourth Class was added (by Alexander I). The Fourth Class insignia was worn mounted on a sword.
- Until 1845, all Classed of the Order assumed hereditary nobility rights, but later only the First Class retained the honor.
- Awarded mostly for long and distinguished services in Civil Service, and valor and outstanding achievements in the Military division. Military type insignia came with swords, also, in some exceptional cases, the insignia of 1st and 2nd Classes might come with diamonds.
- Between 1828 and 1874, recipients of the Order received the insignia with the Imperial Crown, surmounted by diamonds.
- Non-Christian version of the Order had cross and the figure of the St. Anne in the center medallion replaced for the Imperial Eagle.
- The annual feast day of the Order was celebrated on February 14th of each year.

ORDER OF ST. STANISLAUS

- Founded by Stanislaus Augustus Poniatowski of Poland in honors of Polish (and his own) Patron Saint - Stanislas. Born in Krakow in 1030, Stanislas was a Roman Catholic Prelate, and a Bishop of Krakow. In 1079, he denounced his King (who then was Boleslav) for misdeeds and excommunicated him. After being murdered for this feat of valor, Stanislav was later canonized (1253), and since then was considered a Patron Saint of Poland.
- The Order had 3 classes at first, but in 1815 a Fourth Class was added. This change was reversed back in 1839, and the Fourth Class was abolished.
- After 1831, the Order was joined together with other Russian Orders, undergoing just a slight change in design: center monogram became 'SS' (standing for Sanctus Stanislaus), converted from 'SAR' (standing for Stanislaus Augustus Rex).
- Insignia of the Order was awarded for distinguished civil and military services, as well as for excellence in preserving Christian virtues. Military type insignia came with swords, and, in some exceptional cases, might also have the swords surmounted.
- Only First Class of the Order carried hereditary nobility, as of 1845 Statues. Before the 1845, all Classes had equal hereditary rights.
- Non-Christian version of the Order had 'SS' in a center replaced with the Imperial Eagle.
- The annual feast day of the Order was celebrated on April 25th of each year.
